THEY ADHERED TO THE LAW---BUT O BOY!

The Young Folks Mad Good Use of Their Privileges When Daylight Came Yesterday

The boys and girls of Maryville stuck pretty close to the law regarding the discharge of fire crackers only on the Fourth of July. Wew were to be heard Monday evening, but yesterday morning! ! ! !

Most everyone in town was awakened from his slumbers some time before 4 and 6 o'clock by the firing of the crackers under his windows, in the street in the neighbor's yard.

And the young folks used every bit of the time. At 12 o'clock last night the air was still resounding occasionally with the explosion of fire works.

GOOD MOTTO NOW IS "SEE AMERICA"

INCREASE IN RAILWAY FARE LESS THAN THOSE OF SEA

COMPARED TO 1914 RATE

Costs from 70 to 121 per cent more on Ships Than Before the World War.

"America, not Europe this year," should be the motto of summer tourists to whom the relative cost of travel by sea and by American railroads is a sizeable consideration. Actual comparison of published rates shows that American railroads have reduced their summer fares to a point much closer to the 1914 level than have the trans-Atlantic steamship companies, despite the rather prevalent idea to the contrary.

Round trips to the great National Parks and bracing mountain play grounds of the West and to the brilliant scenes of California and the North Pacific Coast are offered at considerably lower figures than the cost of trips to European points.

The American rail fares for 1922 summer travel as compared with summer fares in 1914 have increased as follows: to California and the North Pacific Coast 23 per cent; to Yellowstone National Park 28 per cent; to Colorado 40 per cent; to Utah 42 per cent.

The foregoing figures take no account of the increase in sleeping car fares, but even with this added, the increase in cost of rail travel is only from one third to one half the increase in steamer fares compared to 1914.

For example, the sea traveler finds that to sail from New York to Havre costs him from 88 per cent to 100 cent more than in 1914 depending on whether he goes first or second cabin. He has his choice of a rate from New York to Liverpool on one line at an increase of from 70 per cent to 112 per cent or to Liverpool and Southhampton on another line at an increase of from 100 per cent to 121 per cent over the 1914 rate. If he only goes to Havana it costs him 89 per cent more than in 1914.

As to the wide-spread impression that the money exchange situation enables American tourists to live cheaply in Europe, inquiries through reliable tourist agencies indicate that the average American tourist is being charged for available hotel accommodations at rates of $11 and $12 a day for rooms with bath and $8 to $10 a day for rooms without bath. The full force of these figures is seen when it is realized that there are no hotels, for example, in England and France that compare with the highest class hotels in this country.

THEY WERE IMPRESSED WITH IMPROVEMENTS AT CLARINDA

Maryville people who attended yesterday the celebration at Clarinda, Ia. were much impressed with the number of streets that are being paved and with the building that is going on in the town. They report that a new school building and a new Christian Church are being built.

CELEBRATORS WENT TO VARIOUS PLACES

WERE AT ST. JOSEPH, CLARINDA, BURLINGTON JCT., RAVENWOOD.

MANY PICNIC PARTIES

Others Spent the Day Quietly at Home Pottering About the Place—Many Farmers in Field.

The people of Nodaway County celebrated the Fourth of July yesterday in various ways. Beginning Monday afternoon and evening the trains and motors cars carried crowds to various towns in this section of the state. Others left by the same methods yesterday morning. They went to towns where celebrations were to be held and they went to other places for visits. Burlington Junction, Ravenwood, Clarinda, Bigelow and St. Joseph were the most popular places.

Many people did not see fit to go anywhere out of their immediate territory, so they formed in groups and held picnic parties. Others remained quietly at home, tending to their gardens, their lawns and doing various odd jobs about the places. Many of the farmers throughout the county worked in their fields.

The biggest celebration of the Fourth of July in Nodaway County yesterday was the one at Burlington Junction, put on by the Rolla Dicks Post Number 315, American Legion. A large crowd attended and the entertainment has been pronounced as some of the best staged in this part of the country for several years.

The day began with a band concert, given by the Burlington Junction band, and then came some ball games by pick-up teams. No one seemed to win in the games but the boys had a lot of fun. People spread their dinners at 12 o'clock and the band played again about 1 o'clock. The next feature of the day was speaking by Forrest Hanna, assistant prosecuting attorney of Jackson County and a native of Burlington Junction.

Mr. Hanna began his talk by mentioning the fact that he was born just a few blocks from the place where he spoke, in the Burlington Junction park, and that he learned to swim in the swimming hole in the Cuhioga creek, a few rods from where he stood, and that in his swimming and various other ventures Judge Charles Walker and other local characters were his companions.

Mr. Hanna in his address referred to a recent editorial in the Kansas City Star on "What of America." He spoke of the sacrifices that the American people made to win the World War but said that now that there is no excitement they are not willing to serve a week on the jury to convict some one who should be behind the bars. He said that it is up to the voters now to elect men who will uphold the laws of the country. He said that responsibility for the condition of our country in the future will rest upon the voters. It is up to them to select the kind of men who will enforce the laws. Mr. Hanna was introduced by the Rev. F. E. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist Church of Burlington Junction.

Following the speaking came the baseball game between the St. Joseph Bellon Giants and the Burlington Junction Boosters. The Giants won by a score of 3 to 2. It was a close and an exciting game.

The next thing was the races for the children in which prizes were given.

After this came the floats, put on for prizes by the churches and various other organizations. There were about a dozen of them. The first prize went to the Christian Church, the second prize to the Methodist Church and the third prize to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. The prizes were $50, $25 and $10. The floats were beautiful and the crowd was greatly pleased with them.

Then came a calithumpian parade, in charge of R. N. Barber, followed by a balloon ascension by L. E. Spivins, a local balloon man and formerly a member of the Fifteenth Flying squadron of the U. S. Army.

Then came supper, followed by a band concert and the Mardi gras, in which Miss Alma Miller was crowned queen. The Mardi gras was a new feature for the picnics in Burlington Junction and it was beautiful.

The money for the picnic came from a fund of $400, donated by the

SOUTHBOUND FREIGHT HAD NOT LEFT CRESTON

Strikers Refused to Permit Strikebreakers in Preparing Engine—Five Cars of Stock Here.

The southbound freight on the Burlington due in Maryville at 11:51 a. m., had not left Creston, its division, at noon today owing to trouble between the strikers and strike breakers. The strikers refused to let the men prepare the engine, to oil the engine, to put in coal and to clean the fire box. This is the first interruption in the Burlington service since the strike went into effect Saturday.

Agent W. E. Goforth of the Burlington stated there were five cars of live stock at the yards here for shipment to St. Joseph on today's freight. He said there were about thirty-five cars of live stock along the line for shipment on this freight. It was thought the northbound freight which was practically on time will be run back as the southbound freight today.

The passenger trains are running practically on time since the strike.

W. M. RICHARDSON NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH YESTERDAY

Maitland Man Dived into Big Lake at a Point Where Water Was Not Deep Enough

William Richardson of Maitland narrowly escaped death yesterday at Bigelow when he dived into three feet of water, driving his head into the mud at the bottom. His neck was injured so that it will not be safe for to move his head for some time. His head was driven on his neck so hard that doctors said had the blow been a little heavier he would not have lived. He was taken to Mound City, where he was given medical attention.

It has been pointed out that it is well for the diver to make sure that the water is sufficiently deep before he makes the plunge. Cases are recorded each year of persons who get their skulls crushed or their necks broken by diving into water that is not deep enough.

The classes which are scheduled for today and tomorrow will be conducted as scheduled but the classes which meet Saturday will follow the assignments made for Monday.

Special accomodations were carried by the trains on the Wabash and Burlington railroads yesterday to bring in the large number of students. Motor cars were in great demand to carry the students from the railroad stations to the rooming houses. Last night, long after the trains had run, students were still clinging to their baggage at the stations waiting for a car to take them to their rooms.

In the first of the tenth Hopkins scored. New Market came to the bats and put a man on first second and one first without making an out. The third man up knocked a fly to the shortstop. By a fast triple play the man on second and the one on first were both put out and the game was over.

MAINTENANCE MEN QUIT IN NEBRASKA

SHOPMEN HOLDING FIRM IN THEIR STRIKE

STERN POLICY EXPECTED

President Harding Says "Free Americans Have Right to Labor Without Leave."

Lincoln, Neb., July 5—Several hundred maintenance way men through the state failed to report for duty today. Rail officials and union heads refuse to estimate the number of trackmen who have joined in the strike.

Marion, O., July 5—Sterner policy dealing with the railway and coal strikers is expected. President Harding asserted in his Fourth of July speech that "the free American has a right to labor without any other leave" and that "the government cannot tolerate any group dictation."

Chicago, July 5—The striking railway shopmen are holding firm their strike despite the refusal of the maintenance of way men to join in the walkout. The decision of the maintenance of way men, however, disclosed the shop crafts unions must fight to a finish.

It is generally believed, that the clerks, signalmen, telegraphers, stationary firemen and oilers will also reject the strike action at this time.

B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employes department of the labor federation, reintracted the strike. It is a fight to a finish between the railroads and men with the United State railway labor board negligent factor.

The striking railway employes are ready to consider the proposal from anyone in authority, including the labor board, towards the settlement of the strike of 400,000 men, high union officials stated. B. M. Jewell declared the labor board had no official notification that the employes have removed themselves from the board's jurisdiction.

Jewell declared that he was not surprised at the action of the maintenance employes in not entering the morale of the strikers.

Haverlock, Neb., July 5—The meetings of the striking Burlington shopmen are opened each day with prayer by two protestant preachers and a priest, all carrying union cards. Local merchants say they will back the strikers to the limit.

Havelock, Neb., July 5—Thirteen imported strike breakers attempting to enter the Burlington shops here were driven from town today by strike sympathizers. Warrants have been issued for strikers alleged to have beaten, robbed and ejected twenty-five shop guards.

STREET CAR BANDITS DISARM GUARDS AND TAKE $21,000

St. Louis, July, 5—Eight street car bandits disarmed patrolmen guarding a satchel containing money here today and carried off $21,000 in cash and $79,000 in checks. The satchel was being carried by a messenger from the Tower Grove bank.

HENRY N. MOORE.

Church People in Business.

Roger W. Babson, the nationally known business expert and statistician finds out many things that are of much interest and should be of benefit to people who can see lessons in figures. He makes a statement with reference to church people in business that may surprise a good many business men.

He says that 80 per cent of the business buildings of America are owned by active church members and that 76 per cent of bank savings are owned by church people. He says that 62 per cent of our factories are in the hands of religious men and that 81 per cent of the farms of this country are owned by men who go to church almost every Sunday.

From which it would seem that men of spiritual understanding and faith are the real business men. In the regular lines of business men succeed through honesty, economy and square dealing. They rest their business upon the broad and solid foundation of honesty and frugality. Of course men do not have to belong to church to be honest but naturally a larger per cent of church goers meet the requirements of good business.

Anyway, the man who would succeed should first engage in some legitimate business and let fair dealing be his guide. Crooked business does not promise any permanent success and not one crook in a thousand accumulates anything worthwhile. He lacks the necessary qualifications for success and that one added essential, the confidence of his fellowmen.

The standpatters got probably the worst jolt of the year in the defeat of Senator McCumber who is a prominent member of the Senate Finance Committee and the floor manager of the tariff bill. There are a few more yet who may get a jolt from their esteemed fellow citizens. The political pendulum that swung so far two years ago to the reactionary side is coming back the other way and apparently coming strong. Some of the fellows who are pointing to the vote of two years ago as their justification for their course in Congress had better take a look at the handwriting on the wall.

Some people are so stingy they won't even laugh except at the expense of others.

When a motor knocks there is something wrong with the motor. A man is a human motor. They perform a good deal alike.

A "cake eater" in Kansas City got tired of being a "a flat tire," as he phrased his penniless condition, and staged a robbery. The police however punctured the plan before he could step on the gas and he is now in the city garage awaiting repairs.

FUTURE HOUSEWIVES LEARN HOME-MAKING

Jefferson City, Mo., July 5—"I consider the work of home-making as important as any work being done in our schools," said Sam A. Baker, State Superintendent of Schools, in a recent press interview. Supt. Baker declared that "the time and money being spent on the training we are giving our boys will much of it go to waste unless these boys are going into the right kind of homes.

Supt. Baker said that one of the most important phases of present-day education is the training for home-making which is being given to girls and women in Missouri high schools. "When we consider the fact that eighty per cent of our girls will be home-makers and that more than fifty per cent of the income of the average American is expended by the housewife for clothing, food and shelter," remarked Baker, "we realize the need for this training, since there are more people engaged in the profession of home-making than in any other occupation in this country."

In tracing the development of vocational home economics education in Missouri for the last three years under the Smith-Hughes Act, which grants federal aid for this type of work, according to Baker, there were in 1918 but ten schools offering this subject, with an enrollment of 240 students. For the year just closing, he stated, there were 39 high schools carrying on the work, with an enrollment of more than 1,250; 130 evening schools, with an enrollment of more than 3,000 and 35 part-time schools, with 520 enrolled, making a total of more than 4,000 girls and women receiving training in the job of home-making.

It is Supt. Baker's conviction that this phase of education has greatly vitalized the connection between the home and the school in every branch of the domestic arts, and its practical application is reflected in the growing demand by the school of the state for vocational home economics.

Emerson Norton, the phenomenal freshman from the University of Kansas, carried off individual honors in the open events.

Bert Wilcox of Liberty, who was in the track meet at Maryville this spring, was individual high point winner in the high school events also, with 10 points, capturing first in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Wilcox's time for the 100 was 10 2-5 seconds and for the 220, 23 2-5 seconds.

Robey ran as a member of the Spalding's relay team of Kansas City which took first place. Robey received three cups, one silver metal and one gold metal. The cups were on display today at the Penney store. Smith won one cup.

Smith's time in the 440-yard dash was 53 2-5 seconds. Robey went a height of 5 feet and 1 inch in the running high jump. Goforth of Barnard was third in the 12-pound shot. Robey was also third in the running broad jump; second in the 100 yard dash; first in the 50-yard dash; and first in the running broad jump.

Horseshoes at Ravenwood

Arza Loomis and Darl Wells were the champion horseshoe pitchers at the Ravenwood celebration yesterday, as was decided when they came out first and second in the finals. Sixteen games were played and when the finals were finished Arza Loomis was awarded the first cash prize of $2 and Darl Wells was given $1 cash prize for second place. O'Bed Ogelsby had the high score for the number of ringers thrown.

The Bradley Ogelsby Hunterson Post, American Legion, had charge of the celebration. A large crowd attended. This is the first celebration that Ravenwood has had on the Fourth of July and it is thought that another one for next year will be planned.

The Rev. R. E. Snodgrass addressed the people in the afternoon and Dr. O. L. Curl delivered the address in the evening. The Bolckow band furnished the music.

The Ravenwood baseball team lost to Wilcox by a score of 8 to 5.

Produce Review

Movement of eggs from producing points to large markets is normal for this time of year. Quality at present is running very irregular, due to the hot weather and also to the fact that producers do not market eggs as frequently as they should. This is very important to insure obtaining top prices.

Live hens are moving well for the season of the year, and on account of the large number available, are selling on lower basis.

Young chickens are coming to market in increasing numbers each week, but as there is a very good demand, prices are steady, although pointing to a lower level.

Butter prices have worked higher due to the fact there were some scales made for export shipment. Production has shown considerable decrease the last ten days, on account of the hot dry weather, but as the amount produced has been heavier than usual for the year to date, it is natural to look for normal production to continue which should hold the market steady.

ALFALFA MEETING SUNDAY AT CLEM MEYERS FARM

Will Be Demonstration of the Use of the Liner and Explanation of Spring Tooth Harrow.

An alfalfa meeting will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of Clem Meyers at Conception. Roy A. Kinnaird, county farm agent, said this morning that there would be a limestone spreader at this meeting and its workings will be demonstrated. Mr. Meyers has a field which was limed and an example of how alfalfa grows on limed land can be seen by those who attend the meeting Sunday.

Mr. Meyer will probably cut his alfalfa this week and go over it with a spring tooth harrow to demonstrate how the spring tooth harrow cultivates the field and kills out the blue grass. Blue grass is one of the enemies of alfalfa, especially if it is used for pasture but being a short rooted grass it is easily killed out with the spring tooth harrow. Alfalfa is a long rooted plant and is not affected by the cultivation. When one of the teeth of the harrow comes in contact with the plant it springs around it without injuring the root.

WHEAT HARVEST IN NODAWAY PRACTICALLY COMPLETED

Few Binders Were to Be Seen Running Yesterday, Although Many Were Cultivating Corn.

Wheat harvest in Nodaway County is practically completed. Some wheat was still standing Sunday and a number of binders were running in the county, but very few cases were binders to be seen running yesterday. The shocks stand thick and large in the fields and from the appearance the yield will be a heavy one.

Many of the farmers of the county stayed in their corn fields yesterday getting the crop laid by, instead of going to a Fourth of July celebration. This was especially true in the morning. Some of them worked half of the day, celebrating in the afternoon.

The corn is growing rapidly and much of the ground has a crust, caused by the recent rains. The farmers want to break this crust before they quit cultivating the crop and it is only a matter of days until practically all the corn will be so large that a cultivator will break it down.

HAS SYSTEM OF DELIVERING GROCERIES TO FARMERS

J. A. Sloan of Wilcox Takes Out Bill of Goods When He Goes After the Cream

Farmers on certain roads north, west and south of Wilcox have access this summer to a delivery service for goods that they wish to purchase somewhat the same that people in town have. J. E. Sloan, proprietor of the Sloan store in Wilcox, established this spring three produce routes out of Wilcox, one north, one west and one south from town, to pick up the cream and eggs that the people had for the market. He conceived the idea that since he was going out with his truck empty to pick up the egg cases and the cans of cream that he might just as well take out bills of groceries and other things to the people along his route. Accordingly he delivers the things they call in by phone and ask for.

Mr. Sloan says that the idea of picking up the produce and delivering the groceries has proved a success. He expects to continue the routes until after the rush work season on the farms is over this fall. Next year he expects to carry it on again with a larger truck. In some cases people this year have called him and had him leave goods for them at points along his routes, although they lived on some other road. He says that his service was used especially during the busy season of harvest. One of the routes is fifteen miles long, another seven miles long and the third is twenty miles long.

J. W. Brogan also has produce routes out of Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bickett and Mr. and Mrs. Ray McDowell and son, Forrest, spent the Fourth at Lake Crabill at Clarinda.

EXPECT TO FINISH PAYING STATE BONUS BY SEPTEMBER 1

W. A. Raupp Explains in Letter to Lee Strickler Why Some Higher Numbers Are Paid First

The State Bonus commission of Missouri expects to finish its task of paying the bonus claims not later than September 1, according to a letter sent out by W. A. Raupp, president of the commission, to Lee Strickler, post adjutant of the James Edward Gray post, American Legion.

Mr. Raupp explains the fact that some of the men are receiving their money ahead of those who have a lower order number, in the following manner:

"When a claim is received, it first is numbered and a card bearing the same number is mailed to the applicant. Then it is registered and is filed awaiting its turn for the examiners. So far, there is no break in the serial number. When a claim goes to the examiner and is found correct, it is sent to the Commission for approval, and when approved, is vouchered and a check covering it is sent out. When we have no federal record on a claim, it is put in the suspense tray and we ask our Washington correspondent for a record. Sometimes, in addition to this, we ask the applicant to send us his discharge, or a copy of it, in order to expedite, as it usually takes from four to eight weeks to get a record from Washington. When the applicant has failed to answer the questions properly, or has made other mistakes in his claim, it is returned to him for correction. All of these claims are placed in the suspense file, and just as quickly as we get the necessary data, it takes its place ahead of all claims of a higher number.

"In view of the fact that fully 50 per cent of the claims are wrong in some way, you can readily understand why claim 30,000 might be paid and claim 3,000 is held up. It would hardly be good sense of efficient management to hold up every claim numbered higher than 3,000 until we could complete the data on that particular claim, and for that reason many higher numbers are paid while lower numbers are waiting. You can assure every man holding a claim that is less than 100,000 that he will surely be paid or rejected, and they will not help matters a bit by writing and telegraphing and bothering us with pleas for hurrying them up."

Visited the Zimmermans.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. E. Gillette motored from St. Joseph Monday and spent the Fourth of July with Mr. and Mrs. Karl Zimmerman, west of Maryville. The party returned to St. Joseph this morning.

A. J. SEYSTER'S WHEAT HURT BY HESSIAN FLY

Estimates That One-Fourth of the Crop in One Field Fell Because of Infestation.

Concerning the Hessian fly condition in the county, A. J. Seyster, living between Orrsburg and Parnell, reports that he has a field of eighteen acres of wheat which was sown during the first weeks of September and he estimates that one fourth of the straw in this field is cut off as a result of the fly infestation. Another field which has about eighteen acres in it but which was sown the first week in October is free from fly and will yield about ten bushels to the acre more than the first field. Mr. Seyster says that his neighbor, J. F. Barber, a half mile east of the Elm Grove school, has wheat which was sown the first week in September and the fly has cut his yield about one half.

Further reports of the fly infestation show that A. G. Castillo, near Elmo, A. M. Hazelton, Burlington Junction, Irvin Chambers, Hopkins, L. Morehouse, Hopkins, R. V. McKee, Ravenwood, have some fly in their fields but not enough for great damage this year. Henry A. Thompson of Hopkins says that there is not any wheat in his community which is infested with Hessian fly.

Some Pies Need Meringue To Be Complete

The lemon cream pie is incomplete without the meringue top and so is the chocolate pie, and so are the crustless pies. If the cook was in a hurry she might put the meringue in these while they were still hot. Egg white with a tiny bit of sweetening may not shrink if put in a hot surface, but in general meringues do shrink in this case, and if they contain much sugar they shrink and leak a sirup and are tough. A chocolate cream pie is extremely unattractive under such circumstances.

Two egg whites are needed to make a meringue of any size, and they should be beaten until stiff and dry. Then powdered sugar, sifted is preferable and less likely to form a sirup when heated with egg white to granulated.

When a meringue is spread on a lemon pie one of the ways to garnish it is with the solid parts of orange marmalade. You may make scallops or get other pretty effects.

A teaspoon of cocoa sifted over the meringue of a chocolate pie gives an attractive effect, as when it is used over the mushroomlike meringues or kisses.

Should time fail for laying in a meringue for a chocolate pie, and setting it in the oven, whipped cream may take its place, and it may be cocoa whipped cream. Use one tablespoon or less of cocoa to each four tablespoons of cream, and the same amount of powdered sugar. Dissolve cocoa in a little cream. Add a few drops of vanilla.

Edison Library to Be Free.

E. R. Dawley, a special representative of the Thomas A. Edison Laboratory Orange, N. J., arriving here today brought news of the latest inspiration of the great brain of Mr. Edison. It appears that Mr. Dawley is here to visit owners of the New Edison Phonograph and explain to them the New Edison Service Clubs.

One of the best features about the Library Plan is that every number of one's family, and friends, can hear and discuss each selection in the comfort of the home at the same time. There is no cost to anyone, or obligation. It can be seen that only the almost unbreakable quality and durable surfaces of the Edison Re-Creations make this plan possible.

BABY BEEF CLUB CALVES ARE REPORTED DOING WELL

Dale Dorman's Steer Gained Sixty Pounds During the Month of June

Reports coming into the farm bureau office concerning the baby beef club show that some of the calves are making good gains. Max Wray of Hopkins has a shorthorn heifer which weighed 850 pounds July 1, making a gain of ninety pounds during the month of June.

Dale Dorman, who lives with H. A. Forcade, near Graham, has a shorthorn steer that weighed 1,100 pounds on July 1. It made a gain of sixty pounds during the month of June.

Roy A. Kinnaird, county farm agent and W. A. Berg, visited two members of the baby beef club this week and found that the angus steers of Lavern Butts, east of Ravenwood, and Maurice Berg, northeast of Ravenwood, both are in good shape and have made good gains during the month of June. Butt's calf weighed 910 on July 1 and Berg's calf weighed 990 pounds the first of this month.

Dorman says that he is troubled a little with short pasture during the past month and the flies gave him trouble. Mr. Kinnaird says that practically all of the boys and girls spray their calves during the summer. He is well pleased with the prospects of the baby beef calves.

H. F. HOLLOWAY GOES IN BUSINESS WITH FATHER

To Establish a Transfer Line Between Here and the Markets in St. Joseph

H. F. Holloway has moved from Cedar Rapids, Ia., to Maryville and has gone in business with his father, J. A. Holloway and brother, Roland Holloway, forming the firm of J. A. Holloway and Sons. The firm has purchased two international trucks and one one-ton Ford truck and are ready to do hauling of any kind. The headquarters for the transfer and storage is to be located in the Old Star barn.

It is the plan of the Holloways to run a truck line between Nodaway County and the markets at St. Joseph. On returning from the trips to the market they will carry freight for the Maryville merchants.

J. A. Holloway continues in the gravel business with Victor Wilcox but Mr. Wilcox has no interest in the transfer business.

The Star barn will receive a new coat of paint and the interior will be somewhat changed. A new office room will contain a new set of fixtures. The interior of the barn will be changed in such a manner as to provide storage space for cars and horses. By August 1 the sale pavilion will be in shape and public sales will be held.
